Preface

In this, the thirtieth, link of the CHAIN you will be carried back into the year 1910 for a look at Ma and Pa when their hearts were young and gay and find just how the "younger generation" compares to that of the era of high button shoes and wing collars. The Staff of the 1948 CHAIN hopes that you will enjoy this presentation of the "old and new"—the new being your own achievements of the past year.

History of Class of 1948

As the Seniors leave their high school years behind, they will have many pleasant memories to take with them. These memories will include dances, plays, school athletics, and pleasant times together.

When the Seniors entered Lane as Eighth Graders, they were "greenhorns", and quite unaccustomed to the noisy halls. With Sue Highfield to lead them through the year as president of the class, they became familiar with their new school. They elected Doris May as their candidate for Victory Queen.

As Freshmen they took part in a large number of activities and felt that they were a part of the school. Walton Lindsay was president of the class this year. Nancy and Mary Ann Tyler represented Lane in the Latin tournament at the University of Virginia.

The next year as Sophomores they elected Eugene Nuckols as president. Marea Jo Wiard had a leading part in the operetta, and Charlotte Yancey was president of the Girls' Junior Hi-Y. Mary Ann Martin, Doris May, and Betty Ann Adams were active as cheerleaders.

Their Junior year was a wonderful one as they looked forward to becoming Seniors. Paul Payne was president of the class this year. James Bickley was president of the band, and Anne Davis was president of the Girls' Activities Council. John Root was our track star, and Ann Chase was chosen as the outstanding actress of this district.

And then, they became Seniors and prospective graduates! Paul Payne was once again elected president of the class. This year John Root was president of the Student Council, and Wayne Marshall headed the honor committee. Pat Yoe was elected "Miss Lane of 1948" with Joyce Marrs as maid of honor. Through the pages of this book may be found the achievement of the Seniors during their last year at Lane.

VOLUME I CHARLOTTESVILLE, VIRGINIA, TUESDAY, MAY 11, 1958 NUMBER 5

MARSHALL'S FLIGHT TO MOON A SUCCESS

TRIP TO FRISCO MADE BY LANE BAND

The Lane High Band, under the direction of John Fletcher, made a trip to San Francisco to attend the Orange Blossom Festival. The trip was a huge success, and Lane took many top honors. The trip was made in one of Mr. Richard Mussey's new two-wheel buses. It was carefully driven by Mr. Pete Coleman, who made the trip in twenty-four hours. The trip was ably chaperoned by Miss Shirlie Savin and Miss Barbara Lutz.

BABALONIA DISCOVERY ASTONISHES WORLD

Monsieur and Madame John Herr have just returned from the wilds of Babalonia where they have just discovered "laneium" which will take the place of the common kitchen soap. It is 324% pure—it flies. Madame Herr is the former Miss Sue Highfield.

MERENESS REVIEWS LENGTHY NEW NOVEL

Ann Mereness, the noted book reviewer, has just completed reading the 1958 edition of the New York Telephone Directory. She commented, "It didn't have much of a plot, but gad, what a cast of characters!"

JARMAN, NOTED STAR, TO SING

Tickets for Immunity Concert are now on sale. Get your tickets at Bradshaw's Drug Store and Slaughter's Repair Shop. The season promises to be an entertaining one. The entertainers will be Mr. Thomas Jarman, that great Metropolitan Opera Stinger; Miss Patricia Yoe, the Ballet Russe star performer; and Miss Joan Weinberg, pianist and composer, who will make her debut playing her own composition, "The Star Dust Symphony." The entertainment will be given at the Cummings Theater.

STORY OF WILD OLD CAROLINA PUBLISHED

A new book has been presented to the literary world by the Dofflemoyer Publishing Company. "The Wilds of Old N. C." by Margaret Gooch has already outsold all other novels. Its sales have even succeeded that of the once famous novel "Forever Ambush." Its fine illustrations were done by Warren Blackwell.

MAN'S DREAM ACCOMPLISHED

A new jet propelled airplane has just returned from its test flight to the moon. Its inventor, Mr. Wayne Marshall, made the flight. Said Mr. Marshall, "My new jet plane is a smashing success. The flight was made in forty-eight hours." The pilot, Mr. Ernest Duff, said, "All I could get was a 1000 M.P.H. in second, but I know I can get more than that out of her!"

Many scientists accompanied Mr. Marshall. The only comment about the moon so far was made by Scientist Frank Batty. Commented Mr. Batty, "The exterior of the moon seems to be made up of H_3O, K_2SO_4, NE_3PO_4, ANO_2, and $ASKO_2$."

NOTORIOUS BANK-ROBBERS CAUGHT

Those two notorious gangsters, "Gorgeous, Georgeous" Gianakos and Charles ("Two-gun Mike") Carroll, were finally caught late yesterday while holding up the New York National Bank. "Two-gun Mike's" only words were, "You know it."

SPANISH STUDENT IS GRADUATED

At the graduation exercises at the University of Virginia, that well known Spanish scholar, Mac Wade, graduated with lowest honors. Dado, the Spanish professor, when queried about Swade's linguistic ability stated, "Mac's only claim to fame is Suzo."

Kennon Stars In Hamilton Garden Show

Miss Martha Lee Kennon won the American Horse Show Association Medal Class Championship and the Van Sinderea trophy of 1958, earning 500 points in medal classes at recognized horse shows. She took many top honors at Hamilton Triangular Garden this year on her famous horse "Jumpabout."

Jaybirds Swamp Blue Bay Shippers 220-0

The Charlottesville Jaybirds defeated the Blue Bay Shippers 220-0 in an excitinyly close contest. Mike (Flying Express) Cason made a spectacular run of two yards. The key block was thrown by Bernie (Two-ton Tony) Chisholm, which gave Cason a clear field. The Jaybirds were favored by the 200,000 spectators that filled the Lane Bowl. It was undoubtedly the best game of the season.

LOCAL BEAUTY IS RECOGNIZED

Fitzhugh (Snookum) Wickham wins Beauty Contest held by the Stuart Hall Alumnae Association which was sponsored by Miss Charlotte Yancey. As "Snookums" was the only contestant, he won the prize for the most beautiful male. When asked what he owed his success to. "Snookums" replied, "I owe my success to eating 'Cow Chow' every morning."

PARIS IS THRILLED BY NOTED DANCER

Chic (Dry) Martini, while dancing at the Gala Theater in gay Paris, took a backward glance, tripped and fell into the empty seat in the second row. She knew she had to go on with her career as ballerina, so she got back on stage and danced on and on. Not only is she a famous ballerina but also the author of that noteworthy book "Sleep—the Secret of a Happy Life."

SOCIETY

Mrs. Gotplenty Rocks Entertains Society World

Mrs. Gotplenty Rocks, the former Shirley Harlowe, held open-house last night at her new estate, "Backdoor Manor." Among the guests was the famous movie actress, Anne Chasem. Other noted guests were Miss Jean Newman, the Cowers Model; Miss Mary Alice Newman, who wore a stunning new creation by Madame Nanci Kombs; Betty Ann Adams, that dynamic columnist whose gossip column is enthusiastically read throughout the world; and Walton Lindsay, the newspaper tycoon. The guest of honor was the Mayor of that growing metropolis of Crozet, the Honorable John Root.

The architecture was done by Jerry Blackwell, world famed architect, and the interior decoration by Mrs. Blackwell, the former Ruth Harrison. These two have designed some of the most famous mansions in the world. They are famous for their original designs.

Miss Mary Ann Tyler entertained yesterday with a garden-party at her country estate. Miss Juanita Giannini who arrived from New York City was guest of honor. Miss Giannini is editor of the Flashy-Trashy Society News. Prior to the social event, Virginia Hall, Miss Tyler's private secretary stated that Happy (Donald) Johnson got so happy that he fell into the fish pond!

MARRIAGE SOLEMNIZED

The marriage of Miss Marea Jo Wiard of Keswick and Mr. James Bickley was solemnized yesterday in Charlottesville with the Reverend David Rouleau officiating.

The bride wore a gown of ivory slipper satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline outlined with a yoke ending in tiny seed pearls at the base of the neckline with long sleeves, tight bodice, and a full skirt, ending in a circular train. The bride carried an arm bouquet of dandelions and iris.

Miss Betsy Betts was maid of honor. She wore a gown of purple chiffon finished with rows of Charteuse pon-pons.

The bridesmaids, Betty Joan Smith, Peggy Sullivan, Nancy Tyler, and Elizabeth Urner, wore matching gowns of Charteuse Chiffon with purple pon-pons. The maid of honor and the bridesmaids carried similar bouquets of red tulips and yellow daffodils.

John Ball was best man for Mr. Bickley, and ushers were Ben Sutphin, Bob Watts, Lawrence Walters, and Thomas Spicer.

Glenn Powell and James Saunders gave the bridal party a motorcycle escort to the home of the bride, where a reception followed for friends and family. Gardiner Meade got "stinko" at the wedding reception. His last word was, "Gad." As the bride went up the stairs to prepare for the wedding trip, she threw her bouquet which was caught by Anne Davis. When asked for a comment, Miss Davis said, "Gad."

After the reception the bridal couple left for the famous gambling casino on the Riviera operated by that notorious "confidence man," "Sid" Luck.

The Ladies Ale Society presented an entertaining program last night at their annual meeting. It was held at the Fall Through Hotel. The program included many skits by members of the club. The main feature was a hula-hula dance by Earlyne Cabaniss. Girls of the chorus were Polly Ashby, Lucille Batten, Jane Bellomy, Cleo Carrot, and Betty Yowell. The Russian Ballet featured Ann Brown. Supporting Ballarinas were Shirley Bunch, Geraldine Dudley, Charlotte Geer, Mildred Stokes, Shirley Preddy, Shirley Oakey, and June Wood. Betty McConchie impersonated "Lena, the Screaming Hyena." Piano accompanist was Miss Shirley Jo Carr. Refreshments were served by Misses Virginia Goddin, Carolyn Clarke, and Juanita Mays. Miss Christine Davis poured.

This year the juniors ordered their Senior rings early, so they could wear them through the summer.

The outstanding athletes in the Junior Class were Bill Hurtt, Hunter Lang, Jimmy Holland, Monk Roberts, Carroll Herring, and Jimmy Moore, who were excellent in football. At the closing of our third year at Lane, we begin to feel more and more a part of our school, for next year we will be Juniors.

We have been proud of our Sophomore year. With many cooperative students in our class, we have had a year of successful activities.

Early in the year, the officers were elected. Roberdeau Wallenborn was elected president; Billy Stott, vice-president; Kitty Murray, secretary; and Robert Snoddy, treasurer. Miss Marguerite Unruh and Mr. John Sauder were sponsors.

In December we had a hayride. A large number of the students took part in this event, making a big success of it.

Different members of the class took part in other school activities such as Hi-Y clubs, band, choir, boys' and girls' basketball teams, and student government.

At the November meeting the class was entertained by a color film called "Party Lines," the characters being marionnettes.

In February the Freshmen elected Joyce Marrs as their candidate for Miss Lane High. At the March meeting the program consisted of a quiz show with Carl Van Fossen as quiz master. Mary Lee Glass sang a solo, and Betty Staples sang several selections.

The class was well represented in many clubs and activities at Lane.

Other eighth graders took active part in the Hi-Y Clubs, Players' Club, Band, Student Council, and Girls' Activities Council. Barbara Patterson was elected to represent the eighth grade class in the Miss Lane contest, which was presented by the Players' Club, March 5.

MR. H. H. WALKER

The Student Council has worked on several projects this year. For the first project, a study of problems in our workrooms, members of the Council received helpful suggestions from their homerooms. These suggestions were discussed by the Council, and as a result the helpful ones were passed on to workroom teachers.

The G. A. C. agreed to cooperate with the student government organization in furnishing Room 112 for student use.

An effort was made to organize a dance band of students to play at informal school dances. Although this was started too late in the year for many results, it is hoped that the idea will be the foundation of a better plan next year.

A major accomplishment of the Student Council this year was the establishment of a new kind of system to hear the cases of students who break school rules. Students who committed major offenses were called before the entire Student Council for hearing. Those committing minor offenses appeared before the Honor Committee as they have done previously. Members of the Honor Committee are Wayne Marshall, Charlotte Yancey, Richard Morrissette, and Paul Payne.

Ushers Club

Members of the Ushers Club this year performed the duties of patroling the halls, the grounds, and the cafeteria. They acted as an enforcement body for the new system set up by the Student Council. Besides their regular school duties, the Ushers assisted at Barter Theater productions, the Community Concerts, the AMVET play, and various other public functions held in the Lane auditorium.

The Ushers Club was chosen by last year's Student Council. There were fifteen regular members and five alternates who assisted in the absence of regular members.

Girls' Activities Council

The Girls' Activities Council has been very active in this, their third, year as an organization of Lane. The first projects undertaken this year were a get-acquainted party for new students and an assembly in October depicting good sportsmanship at football games.

On December 20, a party was given when Room 112, the student recreation room, was decorated for the Christmas season by members of the Council. A shower was given for the room when the Council received many useful articles and gifts of money which enabled the G. A. C. to purchase four card tables.

A Committee to greet visitors was placed on duty in the lobby. These members saw that the visitors registered in the guest book and were shown around the school. The Publicity Committee worked with the Vocational Guidance Committee in brightening and improving the appearance of the work rooms.

The coördinated efforts of the members did much to carry out the purpose of the organization to promote worthwhile activities among the students at Lane High School during the 1947-1948 session.

The Boys' Senior Hi-Y with a large membership has been very active this year. The Club sponsored a clothing drive for underprivileged children of Europe and a project for sending food packages to a boys' school in Austria.

John Herr, president, became the candidate from the Fourth District for Governor of the State Convention. This body is sponsored by the Youth and Government Movement of America. Herr also was Secretary of the Fourth District Convention held in Staunton.

Traditional school activities included the Hi-Y dances and the collection of Christmas baskets for the needy. The night of the Junior-Senior Prom the annual banquet was held when next year's officers were installed.

MISS LILLIAN BUTT

The Girl's Senior Hi-Y considers this year a successful one indeed. The officers elected were very capable.

For one of the most impressive programs the club had as guest speaker Miss Verena Lieben, a young student from The University of Austria, who was touring the United States appealing for European aid.

The Hi-Y Club sponsored a drive to collect relief bundles for Europe. Two assemblies were presented: the first observing Thanksgiving and the second observing the World Day of Prayer.

Thirty students representing each of the five Hi-Y Clubs at Lane went to Staunton for the week-end of December 6 and 7 to attend the annual Hi-Y conference.

The jeweled Hi-Y pin, worn each year by the girl who is selected by the Club as the best example of Hi-Y ideals, was awarded this year to Sue Highfield.

During the year, the Senior Hi-Y contributed to the Red Cross and the Community Chest Fund.

The Girls' Junior Hi-Y's main project this year was sponsoring a clean scholarship campaign and sponsoring the Eighth Grade Hi-Y meetings. The officers elected by the club were Mary Jo Via, President; Margie Darling, Vice-President; Norma Ball, Secretary; and Lavinia Markwood, Treasurer.

At the conference in Staunton on December 5, 6, and 7, the club was well represented. The members elected to attend were Mary Jo Via, Margie Darling, Norma Ball, Peggy Gianniny, Barbara Barr, Jessie Carr, and Martha Wingfield.

Miss Lillian Butt served as sponsor of the Club.

Boys' Junior Hi-Y

The Boys' Junior Hi-Y was completely reorganized this year. George Scouras was elected President; Alfred Matacia, Vice-President; Harvey Mulhauser, Secretary; and Richard Graves, Treasurer. Mr. G. C. Speidel was sponsor.

The convention of Hi-Y clubs, held this year in Staunton, was attended by five boys representing the Boys' Junior Hi-Y. These members were Jerry Speidel, Richard Graves, George Scouras, Jimmy Fidler, and Harvey Mulhauser.

This Hi-Y also helped raise money to send John Herr to Richmond as governor when the Hi-Y clubs of the state "governed" the state for several days.

The Eighth Grade Hi-Y was organized on September 20, and the officers elected were Mary Allen O'dell, President; Susan Bruton and Laura Meeteer, Vice-Presidents; Kathleen Clontz, Secretary; Barbara Linke, Treasurer; and Miss Butt, sponsor.

On December 6 and 7, six of the members, Betty Ann Wheeler, Mary Allen O'dell, Susan Bruton, Barbara Linke, Nancy Jenkins, and Jane Lushbaugh attended the Hi-Y District Conference in Staunton.

The club contributed to the Community Chest and the Junior Red Cross. Jeanne Savoye was chosen to represent the Eighth Grade Hi-Y at the Players' Club Ball as a candidate for "Miss Lane."

During the year there were many interesting programs presented at the meetings. All in all, we feel it has been a very successful year.

Bumblebee

This year in observing the criticisms of last year's judges, the staff of the Bumblee has endeavored to present to the school a magazine with higher student appeal. In doing this they have accepted humorous articles and more material submitted from the lower classes in order to bring about better representation of the school. New features instituted were: advertisements, a greater number of articles devoted to school activities, personalities, and the histories of Charlottesville and Albemarle County.

Heading the editorial staff was Ann Mereness as editor-in-chief; Margaret Gooch and Anne Brown as associate editors; Juanita Giannini and Cornelia Blincoe as feature and poetry editors. Others on the staff included Carroll Worrall, Shirley Savin, John Chadwick, and Winston Johns. The sponsor was Mrs. Katherine Meade.

Mr. C. J. M. Blume

The Lanetime, our school newspaper, is published approximately every three weeks by a very competent staff. Anyone in school may join the staff if he is able to do satisfactory work. In order to be a good staff member, one should like to write, be alert, and make good grades in English.

Mr. C. J. M. Blume, sponsor of Lanetime, conducts a class in journalism every year. This class of third year English students devotes several weeks a term entirely to newspaper writing, the make-up of a newspaper, and other technicalities.

The purpose of the Lanetime is to print all news concerning the students and the activities of the school. The staff tries to print the name of every student at Lane at least once a year.

It is the editorial policy of the Lanetime to stimulate interest among the student body in the various activities and to encourage the students to speak their minds about the work and policies of the clubs.

The Lane High Band again brought recognition to the school through its excellence of musicianship and drilling. The Military Band received acclamation during football season, performing at home games as well as at one in Arlington and at the University of Virginia—Washington and Lee game at Scott Stadium.

Concerts given included one at Culpeper High School, an Autumn Concert, the Annual Christmas Concert, assembly programs, the Eighth Annual Spring Concert, and participation in the City Music Festival.

Twenty-six members were chosen to take part in the Eastern All-State Band at Radford, this group comprising over one-fourth of the band, in which twenty-nine schools were represented.

In District Competition at Fredericksburg, the Concert Band was given top rating of "One-plus," thereby gaining eligibility for State competition to be held in May at Charlottesville.

The Chamber of Commerce sponsored the band at the Apple Blossom Festival Parade in Winchester, and the local Lions Club announced that the band has been chosen as the official band of the Lion Clubs of Virginia to participate in the International Convention in New York City in July.

Choir

The A Capella Choir, composed of forty-five of the most accomplished singers in Lane High School, has completed a full year of activity under the fine direction of Mrs. Westerman. The officers elected by the choir were Marea Jo Wiard, president; Cleo Carratt, vice-president; Nancy Tyler, secretary-treasurer; Betty Branham, soprano head; Cleo Carratt, alto head; John Craft, tenor head; and Tommy Jarman, bass head. Anne Davis and Marjorie Darling were the librarians.

The choir participated in a variety of programs. Among these were a vesper service program in the University Chapel, an autumn assembly, an evening Christmas Concert, the district music contest, a spring concert, and various radio and graduation programs. Anne Chase, Marea Jo Wiard, and Paul Zang were entered as soloists in the district contest.

Glee Club

The Lane High Glee Club has completed one of its most successful years. The section heads included Betty Byrd, Shirley Johnson, and Betty Hudson. The librarian was Earlyne Cabaniss, and the treasurer was Frances Gillum. The director of the Glee Club was Mrs. Richard Westerman.

This year the Glee Club consisted mostly of eighth graders. Both boys and girls were included in the membership, but the boys rehearsed and sang with the Choir. The Glee Club's main purpose was to serve as a testing ground for future Choir material.

The Glee Club took part in a number of programs this year. There were two assembly programs and the Christmas program. Also, there was the District Festival, in which the Glee Club participated for the first time. Other Glee Club activities included the Spring Concert and the Second Annual City Music Festival.

The Players Club this year was larger than ever before. Many new members were admitted at the beginning of the year. The Club was limited to two public productions during the year, and because of the large membership there were many good actors to choose from.

In November, 1947, twelve actors and many backstage workers produced Two Gentlemen and Verona, a fast moving comedy about stage people—their love and career problems. All the fun at rehearsals made up for the lack of sleep and study! The play went over with the proverbial bang, giving as much fun to the actual actors as it gave to the audience on "opening night."

On March 15 Lane won first place in competing with other schools of the Northern District with their one-act play, "The Patchwork Quilt." The members of the cast enjoyed seeing the plays and work of other dramatic clubs.

At a Ball given by the Club on March 5 Pat Yoe was crowned "Miss Lane High" by Mayor Adams. This Ball received much publicity and was greatly enjoyed by all the Lanites present.

The "C" Club is composed of twenty-six boys who have earned their varsity letter in one of the major sports: football, basketball, baseball, and track.

The purpose is to encourage fair play and sportsmanship in all sports. The goal this year was to make the club the best since it has been organized.

The officers of the "C" Club this year were very capable. They chose football and track star Charlie Carroll as president; Bernie Chisholm, outstanding in football and baseball, as vice-president; John Root, a football player and one of our best trackmen, as secretary; and Hunter Lang, a center on the football team, as treasurer.

The annual "C" Club initiations were held from December 3 to December 5, after which the club gave the annual Christmas dance. This year with the help of Miss Spradlin, Mr. Martin, and Mr. Smith the dance was very successful.

Distributive Education Club

The Distributive Education Club is made up of a group of students who are interested in salesmanship. The course includes grooming, personality, applying for a job, salesmanship, display, advertising, retail arithmetic, English and speech, and merchandise information. Distributive Education is offered to all juniors and seniors who are interested in some form of salesmanship and who have at least fifteen, and not more than twenty-five, hours of work in stores each week.

Carlene Brown represented Lane at the D. E. Convention in Richmond. The convention was held March 4, 5, and 6. Posters and displays from each school were judged, and Lane won first prize with a display made by Leroy Skinner and Wallace Lane. The display was also taken to St. Louis to compete in the National Convention the last of March.

Officers elected by the Club were Tommy Spicer, president; Glenn Powell, vice-president; Carlene Brown, secretary; and Caroline Hudson, treasurer.

Cheerleaders

When the signal opening the start of the 1947 football season was given, Lane's cheerleaders were again on the field of action. Soon after the start of school the following girls were elected by the entire student body as Varsity cheerleaders: Doris May, Mary Ann Martin, Jean McCauley, Jackie Wood, Charlotte Yancey, Betty Ann Adams, Pat Hibbert, Jean Lewis, and Maxine Ix. Later in the year when basketball season rolled around, these same cheerleaders took their places on the basketball court to add color and enthusiasm to that sport.

The Junior-Varsity cheerleaders, also chosen by the student body, were Barbara Barr, Barbara Patterson, Roy Ann Payne, Gwen Morris, and Alice Smith. They did a grand job in cheering the Junior-Varsity teams.

SUMMARY

MILLER SCHOOL

The lights were turned on the new Lane High field for the first game of the season. The opening of the new stadium with 5,000 people in attendance was climaxed by the great game played by both teams.

Miller School had a well trained team, with especially good work done by its line. The score, however, did not do justice to the superiority of the Lane team. Two touchdowns made early in the game by Charles Carroll and M. H. Cason were called back by the officials. The only official touchdown was scored by Wallenborn in the third quarter. This score remained through the game: Lane 6; Miller School 0.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

In the second home game of the season Lane tasted defeat for the first time. Although it was known that George Washington High School from Alexandria was going to have a good team this season, the thought did not bother the boys of Lane, fresh from their victory over Miller School. After being scored on several times, they soon began to recognize G. W. for what it was: one of the best teams in the state. This game was but a preview of the coming games they were to face in the weeks ahead. The final score: Lane 0; Alexandria 32.

HAMPTON

The playing conditions were very bad at Hampton. The weather had been bad all day, it having rained both that morning and afternoon. Hampton had what was believed to have been the best team Lane played all season. Lane was up against a big, well coached team. Our boys played well to hold the score as low as it was. The first half saw Hampton at its best with long gains registered by the powerful backs. Lane showed some offensive action in the third quarter with a great broken field run made by Wallenborn for a score. The game ended with Lane 7; Hampton 27.

Player (?) in Salem Game

LYNCHBURG

The Lane-Lynchburg game was another example of the type of team Lane had to stand up against all season. Glass High, with its power house backs and heavy linemen, was given a good battle by the boys of Lane. The Orange and Black had but two things to rely on. They were the coaching of Mr. Smith and the spirit that has possessed every Lane team. These two qualities, great as they were, could not stop the backs of Lynchburg from scoring in the first, third, and fourth periods. The final score was Lane 6; Lynchburg 27.

1—Root, end; 2—Adams, back; 3—Hurt, tackle; 4—Lang, center; 5—Chisholm, guard; 6—Cason, back; 7—Wallenborn, back; 8—Gianakos, tackle; 9—Mussey, guard; 10—Carroll, back; 11—Herring, end; 12—Nuckols, back.

SALEM

Lane played Andrew Lewis from Salem in a sheet of water and mud, which made the fast T formation a little slow. The boys had a hard time getting started, and once they did, the headway made was small. The second team started the game for Lane. Salem proved too strong for them, because on the second play of the game a Salem player ran 65 yards for a touchdown. The first team went in, and Salem did not make the extra point. The game proceeded slowly through the rain to end with Salem 6; Lane 0.

V. S. D. B.

Lane ran up its highest score of the season against Virginia School for the Dumb and Blind on the Lane field. Cason scored first with a 15-yard run from scrimmage. Wallenborn ran 40 yards for the second score. Adams scored in the second quarter on a quarterback sneak. The third quarter started with a 75-yard run by Carroll.

The fourth quarter was climaxed by Wallenborn's 90-yard run. The first team was sent to the showers after Wallenborn's score. This did not mean much for V. S. D. B., because Bingler went 50 yards for the last Lane score.

V. S. D. B. scored twice in the fourth quarter on a pass and an end run. The final score: Lane 42; V. S. D. B. 13.

FALLS CHURCH

Falls Church came to Lane with a big and well organized team which had scored several important victories in the state.

Lane scored in the first quarter with Carroll running off-tackle for 12 yards. Falls Church came back in the second quarter with a score to make it 6-6 at the end of the half. Lane needed a score in the third quarter, and Wallenborn produced it with a 14-yard run.

The game then settled down to a succession of punts. The time was running out in the fourth quarter when Falls Church scored again and then made the extra point on a second try. The final score: Lane 12; Falls Church 13.

FAIRFAX

The last home game of the season was finished very nicely with the defeat by Lane of Class-A Fairfax. From the first sound of the whistle to the end of the game Lane's offensive power could not be stopped by the heavy Fairfax boys. The first score was made by Wallenborn after an uninterrupted drive of 60 yards. Lane dominated the second period also with a 50-yard drive which ended on the two-foot line at the half.

The third period saw Fairfax intercept a pass which set up its only score of the game. The power of Lane was not yet finished for in the next few minutes Lane's great line-plunging fullback, "Mike" Cason, scored on a twenty-six-yard run. Through the remainder of the game the score was not changed: Lane 19, Fairfax 7.

FREDERICKSBURG

The students of Fredericksburg were having their homecoming game when Lane met them under the lights before 4,000 people. The play during the first half was dominated by Lane with all the backs going for long gains, but Lane could not score. The one offensive move in the first half made by Fredericksburg resulted in a long touchdown run. The half ended: Lane 0; Fredericksburg 7.

When the second half started, Lane was ready to win the game, but Fredericksburg scored on the next two plays. After that Lane's spirit was broken, and Fredericksburg scored almost at will. Final score: Lane 0; Fredericksburg 26.

ARLINGTON

Before a homecoming crowd of 5,000 and under the television cameras, Lane played one of the best games of its season at Arlington. On the second play of the game Wallenborn ran 80 yards for a touchdown. Arlington came back and scored before the second half. The half ended: Lane 6; Arlington 7. In the third quarter Arlington once again scored, making it Lane 6; Arlington 13. Lane received the ball, and Wallenborn again ran 75 yards for a touchdown. Lane recovered a fumble on Arlington's three, but in four tries could not go over. The game ended: Lane 12; Arlington 13. Washington and Lee had a strong line, rated second best in the state.

Lane's basketball team had a fair season with five wins and five losses. Lane competed against the best teams of the state winning many important games. The teams that defeated Lane's quintet did not win easily. The margin was quite often one or two points.

The team began its season with a loss to George Washington and Washington and Lee, two of the best teams of the state. The Orange and Black's first win was over Fairfax in a hard fought game, 46 to 34. We had a losing streak from January 20 to January 31, in which we lost 3 and won 1 game. Lane won again over Fairfax and with this win came second place in the Northern Division. We lost during the remainder of the season to Glass High, George Washington, and Front Royal. We won games with Greenwood and Fluvanna.

The team this year did more than could be expected of a green squad; none of the stars of last year's team returned. Mr. Smith did a good job of getting together a team which had little or no experience on the court. The most experienced players were Paul Payne and Richard Morrissette, both of whom did a great job of playing. Other basketball players worthy of mention are David Cooke—one of the leading scorers, Joe Bingler, Jim Lewis, Jim Coiner, and Junior Harvey.

The response was smaller than last year, but the return of John Root, 54-second 440-man, and W. Wallenborn, sprinter, greatly assured success for the Lane team. Other members returning were Jimmy Bickley, discus; David Cooke and Paul Payne, high jump; and Joe Coleman, 880-dash.

Bernie Chisholm, Carroll Herring, and George Gianakos were the outstanding players reporting for duty on the team this season. SUMMARY

The first game of the season was with Shenandoah. It was lost to a much stronger and more experienced eleven, 35 to 6. In the next contest of the season Lane, with much more experience, held the same squad to a 13 to 0 score. The following weeks the J. V. eleven traveled to Miller School and Woodberry to lose these two contests by close tallies. The steadily improved squad then defeated Culpeper 27 to 14.

The Junior Varsity Basketball squad did fine work this season in defeating five of their ten opponents. The Junior Varsity team was handicapped somewhat with the absence of last year's stars. Soon, however, new players had taken their places, and once again the team progressed under the able direction of Mr. Barnett.

The team started off with a loss of three games: twice to Washington & Lee, and once to McIntire. The squad tasted victory for the first time when Lane won at Fluvanna. The team went on to win three of their five remaining games.

SPECTATORS AT OPENING GAME

Lane's Stadium

A crowd of nearly 5,000 people witnessed the dedication of the Lane Stadium on the night of September 17, 1947. In the thirty-minute pre-game ceremony of dedication, the elementary and high school football teams passed in review. The address was made by G. Tyler Miller, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Others participating in the program included R. H. Perry, Chairman of the School Board; R. C. Jennings, Superintendent of Public Schools; and Dr. McL. Birdsong, President of the Rotary Club. The Lions Club, which started the fund for the new stadium several years ago, attended in a body. Music was furnished by the Lane and Municipal Bands.

The new stadium is equipped with California red wood seats, and the spacing is designed to give spectators the greatest amount of room and comfort. The Lane High athletic field is lighted with 180 150-watt lights for baseball and 120 lights for football. It is believed to be the best lighted field in the state of Virginia and one of the best lighted high school fields in the United States.
